

ICMART-ISAMS 2018

Abstract submission form

Title (max. 150 characters)

Presenting Author

Title

Academic title

Family name

First name(s)

Affiliation

Address

Country

E-mail

Contributing authors (family name, first name, academic title, affiliation)

Abstract (max. 2000 characters)

In case of a scientific abstract, please make sure to provide the following details:

- Relevance of your work in the light of important background information
- Objective
- PICO (participants, interventions or diagnostic procedures, controls, outcome)
- Methods of data-analysis
- Results (please provide effect / association estimates including precision measures in case of quantitative work and a summary of core themes in case of qualitative work)
- Discussion and conclusions with respect to previous findings, relevance of your results for clinical practice and / or future research

References (max. 5)

Contribution of the applicant to the work presented (max. 500 characters)

Funding (financial support that was received for the presented project)

Further conflicts of interest (financial and non-financial)

Biographical note (max. 300 characters)

This abstract is submitted as a contribution in the following format (please tick the appropriate)

Oral presentation

Poster

Clinical breakfast

Acupuncture and related techniques in the perioperative care setting

Acupuncture and related techniques for depression and anxiety

Innovative approaches for the treatment of back pain

Research breakfast

Predictors for acupuncture effects

Role of peripheral neuromodulators in acupuncture effects

Effects of acupuncture on neuropathic pain – aspects from clinical and basic science

Do you agree that the format of your contribution may be changed according to the discretion of the scientific committee?

Yes

No